

Hunger 101 - Feed Your Mind ADVOCACY Training Schedule April 2010

IMPORTANT:

- ◆ Register by contacting Ray Combe at rcombe@firstfoodbank.org or 602-343-3164.
- ◆ If the scheduled times or locations are not convenient for you or your group, please contact Chet Provorse, Education Programs Manager, at (602) 343-3169 or cdprovorse@firstfoodbank.org to discuss other times and locations that would better meet the scheduling needs for your school, corporation, or community group.

Session Title	Session Description	Session Location	Session Schedule
Faces of Hunger	Introduction to hunger and poverty in Arizona. Introduce the concepts of poverty and hunger, as well as the groups of people who live with hunger and poverty in America	Conference Room WESTSIDE Location 13050 W. Elm St. Surprise, AZ	April 20th (Tues), 9:00-10:00AM
Advocacy &amp; Action	Discussion of practical and effective solutions to hunger, poverty and food insecurity. Participants will discuss methods, both short-term and long-term to take action and advocate more effectively for solutions to hunger and poverty.	Conference Room WESTSIDE Location 13050 W. Elm St. Surprise, AZ	April 22nd (Thurs), 1:00PM-2:00PM
Faces of Hunger	Introduction to hunger and poverty in Arizona. Introduce the concepts of poverty and hunger, as well as the groups of people who live with hunger and poverty in America	Volunteer Center Main Office 2831 N. 31st Ave. Phoenix, AZ	April 26th (Mon), 1:00PM-2:00PM
Advocacy &amp; Action	Discussion of practical and effective solutions to hunger, poverty and food insecurity. Participants will discuss methods, both short-term and long-term to take action and advocate more effectively for solutions to hunger and poverty.	Volunteer Center Main Office 2831 N. 31st Ave. Phoenix, AZ	April 28th (Wed), 9:00-10:00AM

Hunger 101 - Feed Your Mind ADVOCACY Training Schedule May 2010

IMPORTANT:

- ◆ Register by contacting Ray Combe at rcombe@firstfoodbank.org or 602-343-3164.
- ◆ If the scheduled times or locations are not convenient for you or your group, please contact Chet Provorse, Education Programs Manager, at (602) 343-3169 or cdprovorse@firstfoodbank.org to discuss other times and locations that would better meet the scheduling needs for your school, corporation, or community group.

Session Title	Session Description	Session Location	Session Schedule
Faces of Hunger	Introduction to hunger and poverty in Arizona. Introduce the concepts of poverty and hunger, as well as the groups of people who live with hunger and poverty in America	Conference Room WESTSIDE Location 13050 W. Elm St. Surprise, AZ	May 6th (Thurs), 1:00PM-2:00PM
Advocacy &amp; Action	Discussion of practical and effective solutions to hunger, poverty and food insecurity. Participants will discuss methods, both short-term and long-term to take action and advocate more effectively for solutions to hunger and poverty.	Conference Room WESTSIDE Location 13050 W. Elm St. Surprise, AZ	May 12th (Wed), 1:00PM-2:00PM
Faces of Hunger	Introduction to hunger and poverty in Arizona. Introduce the concepts of poverty and hunger, as well as the groups of people who live with hunger and poverty in America	Volunteer Center Main Office 2831 N. 31st Ave. Phoenix, AZ	May 14th (Fri), 9:00-10:00AM
Advocacy With Social Networking	Use of Online Internet-based SOCIAL NETWORKING (IE Facebook & Blogs) with a discussion and demonstration of these emerging practical, timely, cost-effective tools for advocacy with non-profits and individuals related to hunger and other social justice issues. Session will include "Getting Started" basics and online DEMO	Volunteer Center Main Office 2831 N. 31st Ave. Phoenix, AZ	May 17th (Mon), 2:30-4:30PM
Advocacy With Social Networking	Use of Online Internet-based SOCIAL NETWORKING (IE Facebook & Blogs) with a discussion and demonstration of these emerging practical, timely, cost-effective tools for advocacy with non-profits and individuals related to hunger and other social justice issues. Session will include "Getting Started" basics and online DEMO	Conference Room WESTSIDE Location 13050 W. Elm St. Surprise, AZ	May 21 st (Fri), 9:00-11:00AM

Hunger 101 - Feed Your Mind ADVOCACY Training Schedule June 2010

IMPORTANT:

- ◆ Register by contacting Ray Combe at rcombe@firstfoodbank.org or 602-343-3164.
- ◆ If the scheduled times or locations are not convenient for you or your group, please contact Chet Provorse, Education Programs Manager, at (602) 343-3169 or cdprovorse@firstfoodbank.org to discuss other times and locations that would better meet the scheduling needs for your school, corporation, or community group.

Session Title	Session Description	Session Location	Session Schedule
Faces of Hunger	Introduction to hunger and poverty in Arizona. Introduce the concepts of poverty and hunger, as well as the groups of people who live with hunger and poverty in America	Conference Room WESTSIDE Location 13050 W. Elm St. Surprise, AZ	June 2nd (Wed), 9:00-10:00AM
Advocacy With Social Networking	Use of Online Internet-based SOCIAL NETWORKING (IE Facebook & Blogs) with a discussion and demonstration of these emerging practical, timely, cost-effective tools for advocacy with non-profits and individuals related to hunger and other social justice issues. Session will include "Getting Started" basics and online DEMO	Conference Room WESTSIDE Location 13050 W. Elm St. Surprise, AZ	June 10th (Thurs), 1:00PM-3:00PM
Faces of Hunger	Introduction to hunger and poverty in Arizona. Introduce the concepts of poverty and hunger, as well as the groups of people who live with hunger and poverty in America	Volunteer Center Main Office 2831 N. 31st Ave. Phoenix, AZ	June 11 th (Fri), 11:00AM-12:00PM
Advocacy With Social Networking	Use of Online Internet-based SOCIAL NETWORKING (IE Facebook & Blogs) with a discussion and demonstration of these emerging practical, timely, cost-effective tools for advocacy with non-profits and individuals related to hunger and other social justice issues. Session will include "Getting Started" basics and online DEMO	Volunteer Center Main Office 2831 N. 31st Ave. Phoenix, AZ	June 21 st (Mon), 1:00-3:00PM
Advocacy With Social Networking	Use of Online Internet-based SOCIAL NETWORKING (IE Facebook & Blogs) with a discussion and demonstration of these emerging practical, timely, cost-effective tools for advocacy with non-profits and individuals related to hunger and other social justice issues. Session will include "Getting Started" basics and online DEMO	Conference Room WESTSIDE Location 13050 W. Elm St. Surprise, AZ	June 30th (Wed), 9:00-11:00AM